¹ Effective December 1, 1997, the provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(b) now provide that where the delay in reply was unintentional, a petition may be filed to revive an abandoned application or a lapsed patent pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b). A grantable petition filed under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(b) must be accompanied by:

(1) the required reply, unless previously filed. In a nonprovisional application abandoned for failure to prosecute, the required reply may be met by the filing of a continuing application. In an application or patent, abandoned or lapsed for failure to pay the issue fee or any portion thereof, the required reply must be the payment of the issue fee or any outstanding balance thereof. In an application abandoned for failure to pay the publication fee, the required reply must include payment of the publication fee.

(2) the petition fee as set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(m); letter entitled "Renewed Petition Under 37 CFR 1.137(b)." This is not a final agency decision.

This application became abandoned on 22 November, 2006, for failure to timely submit the issue and publication fees in response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due mailed on 21 August, 2006, which set a three (3)-month statutory period for reply. Notice of Abandonment was mailed on 16 January, 2007. The petition filed on 29 November, 2006, was dismissed on 9 March, 2007.

While a complete petition has now been provided, and the issue and petition fees paid, it is noted, upon further review, that the publication fee of $300.00 required in the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due has not been paid. As such, a complete reply to the Notice has not been provided.

Petitioner should submit the balance due of $300.00 for the publication fee with any renewed petition.
